

Breast Cancer Action
Community Leaders for Change Program
Application Form

Thank you for your interest in joining our Community Leaders for Change Program. Community Leaders raise their voices in their communities to help spread the word about our work and mobilize others to get involved. We will review all applications looking for candidates who are active or willing to become active in their communities and are interested in breast cancer advocacy.

How did you hear about Breast Cancer Action?
Why are you interested in being a part of Breast Cancer Action's Community Leaders for Change?
Have you been personally affected by breast cancer? If so, how?
Ideas for how you would like to engage your community:

As a Community Leader, we ask that you commit to the following:

- Complete a 2-hour online orientation
- Participate in conference calls with other Community Leaders from across the country
- Attend our 1-hour online webinars throughout the year and other training opportunities
- Represent BCAction in at least 2 different ways or events per year in your community
- Bring your needs and experiences to the conversation to better inform our work

Our commitment to you:

- Hold regular conference calls to connect you with other Community Leaders
- Provide training on breast cancer advocacy issues through an ongoing webinar series as well as training on how to effectively contact your legislators and organize community events
- Provide educational materials for your events
- Help connect you to other Breast Cancer Action members in your area
- Listen and incorporate your feedback into growing a more successful program

Next steps

- We will review your application and schedule a call with you.
